

Committee nomination 2023-2024

Borneo Orangutan Survival (BOS) Australia Inc. is a member organisation whose affairs are controlled and managed by a volunteer committee, elected at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) by financial members.

This year's AGM will be held at 7:00pm on Monday the 23rd October 2023.

The committee comprises four office bearers (President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary) and up to four ordinary committee member positions.

Each member of the committee is elected to hold office until the conclusion of the following AGM and are eligible for re-election.

Committee meetings are usually held by conference call every four to six weeks. Time commitment outside meetings varies according to role.

All committee members must be financial members of BOS Australia and are expected to attend six to eight meetings annually, to take on responsibility for some operational tasks, and to participate in developing strategies to help orangutans.

The general responsibilities of the four office bearer positions are:

- President
Responsible for coordinating the group's strategic direction and external liaison.
- Vice President
Responsible for assuming the President's role in their absence
- Treasurer
Responsible for managing the financial affairs of the association.
- Secretary
Responsible for keeping record of meeting proceedings and meeting other regulatory requirements.
